September Newsletter

Dear KABE Team and Family,

Welcome to the 2021-2022 school year! We hope that your year is off to a great start! Despite the challenges of last year and ones we will face this year, you can do this! Your students need you now more than ever! With that being said, also make sure that you are setting boundaries and taking care of yourself. You cannot serve our students if your cup is empty. Make sure that you are doing all that you need to be your best self. We know that teaching is not an easy job, but we are in this together! Please reach out if you need anything at all. (kabe@kipptexas.org) KABE is here for you. Together we are better!

[Reboot/Episode 4 coming soon]

This podcast serves as a platform to elevate black voices in education- voices that are often absent and need to be heard. As we address racial strife, within education and beyond, this podcast strives to become a voice to help support and elevate Black educators as we fight for justice. Tune in to hear more about how this platform elevates black voices in education.
